& Family at Holland Park Gate

The British educational system is one of the best in the world, and Holland Park Gate is perfectly positioned to access some of the country's leading educational establishments in London and beyond.

An incredible array of independent schools sit within a fifteen to twenty minute commute from Holland Park Gate, including several of the highest ranking in the country. This is complemented by a selection of country prep schools that run daily return buses from and to nearby Brook Green, and the senior boarding schools located along the M4. Alumni range from Nobel laureates to novelists, financiers to food critics, not to mention royalty, politicians and industry leaders.

Lodha UK has partnered with Keystone Tutors, a leading educational consultancy, to help ensure that parents at Holland Park Gate have access to the best advisors and tutors to help them navigate important educational decisions for their children.

Nature & Childhood Development

The 54-acre Holland Park, one of London's most beautiful and varied parks, is located directly opposite Holland Park Gate and is a major draw for families with school age children. Recent studies have revealed the immense positive impact of green space and access to nature on childhood development, with superior cognitive development, health and intelligence found in children raised in green urban environments.

Research also reveals the power of nature to improve mental health and reduce levels of stress and depression.

Outdoor features at Holland Park Gate include:

- Tennis courts
- Football fields
- Golf practice nets
- Cricket practice nets
- Netball courts
- Bike trails & woodland runs
- The Holland Park Adventure Playground

Educational Partnerships

Lodha UK have partnered with leading educational consultancy Keystone Tutors to ensure that parents can access to the best advisors and tutors to help them navigate important educational decisions for their children.

"While there is a huge amount going on around the world, UK schools remain some of the most popular academic institutions in the world. Holland Park Gate is well-located for families looking to find places for their children in London day schools, not to forget the numerous day and boarding schools outside of London that are easily accessible due to proximity to the M4. We are excited to help families understand and explore their schooling options."
